

Heartache to Healing

Created by Heartache to Healing

Heartache to Healing is a community for those who have lost loved ones to connect and read other's stories.

They provide resources for peer support groups and workshops across the U.S. for those grieving.

A screenshot of the Heartache to Healing website. The header features the organization's logo and the tagline 'Compassionate Grief Support to Heal Your Heart and Soul'. A navigation bar includes links for Home, About, Shop/Products, Work with Me, Resources, Speaking & Workshops, Testimonials, and Media. The main content area displays a guest post by Kim Pace titled 'Death is a Part of Life but Little Comfort to the Griever'. The post includes a photograph of a group of people at an outdoor event and a text excerpt about the author's experience with grief. To the right of the post is a sidebar with a call to action to join the community, a form for a first name and email address, and a 'Join the Community' button. A small book titled 'Steps From Grief to Healing' is also featured in the sidebar.
