

Bo's Place

Bo's Place

Bo's Place exists to offer support and community to those who have experienced the death of a loved one.

A non-profit, free-of-charge bereavement center, Bo's Place offers multiple grief support services for adults, children and families, and provides education and resources for those who assist people in grief.

Bo's Place operates on the belief that it is helpful and healing for grieving children and adults to share their stories, memories, experiences, thoughts and feelings with those who can understand their journey. Bo's Place offers the only free on-going grief support program in the greater Houston area for children and their families

Additional Program Information:

Grief Support Groups: Grief support groups at Bo's Place are designed to give bereaved adults, children and families a safe place to express their thoughts and feelings with others on a similar journey. All grief support groups are offered free of charge through the generosity of Bo's Place contributors. Groups are overseen by Bo's Place clinicians and led by trained volunteer facilitators.

Information & Referral Line: Clinicians answer calls and inquiries on our Information & Referral Line from those who have experienced a death, as well as from family, friends, co-workers and other concerned individuals who want guidance on how to support the bereaved. Email info@bosplace.org or call (713) 942-8339.

Community Education & Training: Bo's Place offers community education and training opportunities for helping professionals and volunteers working to support those who are grieving. Workshops and trainings, conducted by clinical staff and/or field experts, are customized for a variety of audiences, including Medical and social service professionals, School personnel, Faith-based practitioners, and Community Organizers. Bo's Place training programs seek to increase understanding of the grief process and to offer guidance about how to support the bereaved. Offerings range from short presentations about Bo's Place grief support services to full-day continuing education workshops for professionals. More information at Resource Library: Bo's Place also maintains a Resource Library for those in the community who seek information about the grief process, about Bo's Place grief programs, or about other community grief support resources.
